

Question 3

Was the relationship between the section (if any) and the course effective, and how could it be improved? What are the strengths and weaknesses of your teaching assistant (discussion section leader, lab section leader, grader or other assistant) as an instructor, and how might his/her teaching be improved?

Response 1

Ted Carl Rosenbaum

Ted was a really good TF. He knows the material and he is able to teach it very well, a rare quality for TFs.

Response 2

Ted Carl Rosenbaum

The sections weren't all too helpful.

Response 3

Ted Carl Rosenbaum

Section was helpful to ask specific questions. Ted was in general clear and helpful, especially with the problem sets; it would be helpful if the graphs/equations on the board were more clear.

Response 4

Ted Carl Rosenbaum

I got the feeling that Ted really wanted his students to learn. I appreciated his effort as a TA.

Response 5

Ted Carl Rosenbaum

Ted was really helpful! For most of section, he gives a lecture of key concepts from the week's lectures and encourages class participation. He also opens discussion up for questions. He's really clear and helpful!!

Response 6

Ted Carl Rosenbaum

Ted Rosenbaum is a good TA. His sections are usually interesting, even though sometimes they move a little slowly. Overall, he is very helpful. Sections are definitely necessary for a better understanding of the course material.

Response 7

Ted Carl Rosenbaum

Ted always came prepared with things to teach us - this was infinitely helpful. I just wish we could have had more than just 50 mins to help us understand everything we had in lecture. Moving through stuff a tiny bit faster would solve this problem.

Response 8

Ted Carl Rosenbaum

Ted was always helpful in reinforcing the concepts we learned about in lecture and going a little beyond it to apply our knowledge to other examples not covered in class, which was a strength. The weakness was that he was a little less lenient than some of the other TAs when it came to grading the problem sets.

Response 9

Ted Carl Rosenbaum

Ted was helpful when I went to section, but this was rare.

Response 10

Ted Carl Rosenbaum

Section not required and nothing is gained from going unless you are interested in being confused by TAs whose expertise in Econ makes any and all explanations over your head.

Response 11

Ted Carl Rosenbaum

He was really helpful. He had a great way of explaining everything. He simplified things in a way that made me understand even difficult concepts. he was also really interested in us learning econ not just regurgitating information on the final. it was really nice to have him as a TA!!

Response 12

Ted Carl Rosenbaum

My TF was very helpful if you needed help. Also, he helped me better understand the lecture notes in his section.

Response 13

Ted Carl Rosenbaum

The section was sort of helpful, but not mandatory to go to either. Ted Rosenbaum is very knowledgeable and helpful.

Response 14

Ted Carl Rosenbaum

The section was great--having the material presented well a third time was extremely helpful. Ted did an excellent job of that, and was also good at drawing the proper responses from section members. His mini-lectures were sometimes too ambitious, so an improved sense of how long material will take to cover would be good, but never were his plans unhelpful. He also connected the basic material from class to real-world current events, which was awesome. It seemed like he was a strict grader, but I think that's a function of his understanding of the concepts discussed, and going to section allows one to share his definitions.

Response 15

Ted Carl Rosenbaum

Extremely helpful and very articulate in explaining concepts

Response 16

Ted Carl Rosenbaum

Yes very effective. I thought Ted was very helpful, nice and intelligent. His sections were run smoothly and he was a great TF

Response 17

Ted Carl Rosenbaum

Ted did an excellent job of explaining lecture concepts, and often putting them in a real-world context, which made it very interesting. He was also very helpful during office hours. I think his teaching style was effective.
